

CROCE QUATERCENTENARY EDITION

The complete sacred works of

Giovanni Croce

1556 – 1609

Maestro di Cappella at San Marco in Venice

Edition Michael Procter
Ringstr. 11, D-76356 Weingarten (Baden)

Quatercentenary edition of the sacred music of Giovanni Croce.

To appear in 14 volumes with critical commentary, a new biographical essay by Martin Morell, and with essays on modal and liturgical organisation. Completion is planned by 2009, the 400th anniversary of the death of Croce.

General Editor: Michael Procter

Consulting Editors: Richard Charteris, Martin Morell

The Edition will appear between Spring 2008 (just over 350 years after Croce's birth) and the end of 2009, the 400th anniversary of the composer's death. Parallel to the 18th International Academy of Sacred Music in Venice in May 2009, which will be devoted to Croce and his colleagues, there will be concerts and church services, including a liturgical performance of Croce's Requiem I in the Basilica di San Marco and of his Missa Jubilate Deo for 4 choirs in the church of S. Maria Formosa, where he was a priest all his adult life.

Outline of the Edition with projected dates of publication .

Each volume includes Critical Commentary and English translations of texts. Summaries of the Commentary and translations of texts in French, German and Italian will be available on the website www.Croce-Edition.com.

Subscriptions to the Edition are available both in the Library edition (hardback) and the paperback Study score version. See below for details.
